We Have Learned Of:

Grief And Hardship

Of Love . . .

. . . And Joy.

Yet Always Rememberin',

*That With These Memories,
We Have Grown.*

A word cloud featuring the word "Seniors" repeated multiple times in various fonts, sizes, and orientations (horizontal, vertical, and diagonal). The word is rendered in a light gray or white color against a dark background. The fonts range from bold, blocky sans-serif to elegant, flowing script. The sizes vary from small, compact letters to large, dominant letters that fill a significant portion of the frame. The orientations are diverse, with some words running horizontally across the top, others vertically down the sides, and some at diagonal angles, creating a dynamic and textured visual effect.

In Memoriam

*Nature's first green is gold
Her hardest hue to hold
Her early leaf's a flower
But only so an hour
Then leaf subsides to leaf
As Eden sank to grief
So Dawn goes down to Dusk
Nothing gold can stay*

Varsity Shares C.A.C. Championship

The CV team of 1974 had the spirit and determination of a winner. And they were. They shared the CAC Championship with Hershey and had an overall record of 8-2.

The offense was led by senior quarterback, Mike Fritz, running by Carl Pizarro and receiving by David Mangle. The defense, which allowed only a maximum of two touchdowns per game, was led by seniors, Scott Peiter, Mike Miszerack, and Keith Becker.

The Eagles opened their season with a victory over Catfish and a wet and muddy game. That was only the beginning. The next two games were impressive ones. The Eagles shut out both Last Pennsboro and New Market. Then in our Homecoming game the Raiders of Middletown gave CV its first defeat. A missed touchdown in the final period gave Middletown a 10-0 victory. That game did not put them down though. A week later the Eagles gave the Senators of Milton Hershey a crushing defeat. The score at the end of the game was 45-0. On a cold snowy night in November the Eagles altered their season record. Hendley. The final score was 45-0. We put a stop to Red Land beating them twice and also to our rivals Mechanicsville. And during that game Carlin became the area's leading rusher. He named the best overall player. And in the final game of the season we mailed an old Eagles fan an overpowering 42-0 win. Some say it could be done. What C & W Valley number one. One says it's besides the team know it was true. Yes it was the Eagles. You But it was we. We were everyone. Cumberland Valley #1.

The 1974 Varsity Hockey team, led by a fine coach, Miss Alleman, finished the season with an overall record of 5 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. The team consisted of 13 enthusiastic girls, led by seniors. Melissa Braun, Kathy Neidert, Teresa Ferrer, Sue Reich, and Debbie Snyder.

They began their season with a win over East Penn (3-0) and a tie with Mechanicsburg (1-1). The next two games were close ones but the opposing team came out on top by only one goal. They got back on the winning track with four straight victories in a row. The final two games of the season were close ones too. The Eagles being the one with the two or more goals needed for a tie or win. Their biggest win had to be over Palmyra where the Eagles scored an overwhelming 8 goals to one.

With 8 returning varsity players and a well-rounded JV team, they should have a successful season next year.

Fall. This is the season of the lonely sport, the thing they call cross-country. It is a sport without glory. All you get are leg cramps, seared lungs, blisters, and the dry heaves. They hear their own raspy breathing, the pounding of their blood in their head and the monotonous crunching rhythm of their own footsteps.

Cross-Country has its strategy: Simple, pure, and brutal.

You go out and you run.

And that's exactly what the 74-75 team did. They went undefeated this year in the league meets with a record of 9 wins and no losses. Their only losses were non-league meets. They topped off the season by being the first CV Cross-Country Team to win the C.A.C. Seniors Fred Cornett and Mike Bodley were the first CV harriers to ever qualify for state. The most exciting meet had to be against Hershey where the Eagles were victorious by only one point. With only four seniors leaving and 5 lettermen returning along with 6 JV harriers, the 75-76 season looks bright.

The Checker Ball at CV

Everyone and everything has a beginning. This year CV had its beginning in soccer. The team faced the challenge of competing and winning against other schools having 10 times the experience. Each player had the lesson to learn of how to lose, without being a loser. Many of the games were narrowly lost with the scores not reflecting the actual closeness of the outcome. The team had its standouts though, with the offense led by Randy Rich, who was later picked to be on the all-star team in the CAC, and Mark Witt along with the strong defense playing of Ed Dobson and John Anderson. The seasons to come should witness the strengthening of the team behind an increase in the enthusiasm of the students and players.

Water Polo: First Year Competition

The 1974 Water Polo Team coached by Tom Waston and Ann Dallam competed in their first year of interscholastic matches. The team has expanded considerably since its first year. This included two boys' teams (A and B) and a girls' team. Both teams have done extremely well competing against the best high school teams in the east. Despite the loss of seniors Sue Speers, Ron Becker, and Greg Volland the prospects look good for next year. This year the Boys A Team competed in the Eastern Interscholastic Water Polo Tournament held at Mercersburg Academy. It was a two day tournament and the team got plenty of experience playing against the top notch teams.

As a spectator sport, Cumberland Valley's wrestling matches have undergone a rise in interest. Students and adults have become a part of the Eagles wrestling team and Coach Humes has held the team together with much drive and enthusiasm. This year's varsity team went undefeated in conference play and in overall competition. At the end of the season, CV was voted by coaches the number one team in the state.

The season started with an impressive victory over East Pennsboro, 55-8. The team had only one shutout this year and the victim to the Eagles was Middletown. The final score was 57-0. At the Boiling Springs Tournament, over Christmas vacation, the Eagles, being the defending champions, were dethroned by Clearfield by a slim 92-90. As stated by many, the match at Cedar Cliff was named the Super Bowl of wrestling. Well, the Eagles were "super" victorious when the final match was over. The final score favored the Eagles 32-14 (cont'd)

One Act Plays

This year's Winter Drama Festival presented a broad range of theatrical forms. "Impromptu," directed by Mrs. Jo Langdon, was a straight dramatic play. "The Brick and the Rose," which was directed by student Carol Magaro, was an example of Readers' Theatre. Next Mr. Andrew Buch's original play "The Wedding, or the Two Ring Circus" provided an example of farcical comedy. The final production, Ionesco's "Jack, or the Submission," directed by Mr. Lloyd Sheaffer, was an example of classical Theatre of the Absurd. The Drama Department feels that students, during their stay at C.V., should have an opportunity to view and study all forms of theater so that at later times they will make sound judgments about theater performances.

Navy Recruiting

NAVY RECRUITING STATION

A good mind pays off in the Navy.

If you're a high school graduate with a taste for math and physics you may qualify for Advanced Electronics or the Nuclear Power Programs. And you'll get a lot of advanced technical training to give you a firm foothold in the Navy. So, if you're looking for a career, the Navy is the place to go. See a Navy Recruiter now.

Be someone special in the Navy.

*Cumberland Valley
we must leave,
Not just for a day or night, but forever.
Now a closed door
opened,
you to the left, and
I to the right.
We go our separate ways.*
